Volume XXXVIII, Number 12.

M. M. BURGESS IS JUDGE AND W. JAY ROBERTS ATTORNEY

Two Vacancies in Lawrence
County Offices Filled
by Appointment.

Milton M. Burgess, of Wilbur, has been appointed judge of the Lawrence County Court to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge M. B. Sparks.

The appointment was made last Saturday by Governor Morrow and Mr. Burgess took the oath of office Monday and entered upon the duties.

Monday was the regular term of the Lawrence County Court, and one of the first acts of the new judge was to appoint a County Attorney to succeed him. G. W. Castle, who died on the 11th, Attorney W. Jay Roberts was given the appointment, and at once qualified and began service.

These two appointments held until after the November election of next year, when successors will be elected. Judge Burgess was for many years chairman of the Republican committee of Lawrence county. His friends expect to see him make a good record in the chief office of Lawrence county because of their confidence in his capability, honesty and fitness.

Mr. Roberts also has been active in the affairs of his party and has won the rewards that have come to him. The position in which he is now placed is a responsible one, with much work just ahead which he will take up at once.

$10,000 Damages Awarded Salyers in Circuit Court

Ten thousand dollars was awarded Hoadley Salyers by a jury in circuit court at Catlettsburg Saturday after a deliberation of not more than thirty minutes. The verdict was the result of a case in which Salyers sued the Catlettsburg Park Company for damages, says the Ashland Independent.

Salyers alleges personal injury which he sustained as the result of an attack which occurred at Catlettsburg Park in May, 1919, and during which he was struck on the head by a park policeman, Jim Doherty, of Catlettsburg.

Salyers is now residing near Houndsville but at the time of his injury lived at Catlettsburg. This trial at Catlettsburg occupied almost two days. The plaintiff's testimony brought out the fact that he is a park policeman, and that he had been enjoying himself at the park and had been drinking.

They were arrested and Salyers was taken out of the park by Doherty, who it is alleged, struck Salyers on the head with a club. Salyers says that he is a park policeman, and that he had been enjoying himself at the park and had been drinking.

Salyers claims that he was struck on the head by a park policeman, Jim Doherty, of Catlettsburg. Salyers is now residing near Houndsville but at the time of his injury lived at Catlettsburg. This trial at Catlettsburg occupied almost two days.

The verdict rendered by Salyers is one of the largest ever rendered by the local county circuit court and is as yet the largest in several terms.

A few of the stockholders of the Catlettsburg Park Company are residents of Ashland but the controlling interest is held by Huntington. Whether the company's financial condition will allow payment of the judgment awarded Salyers, however, is a debatable question, attorneys say.

Louisa Christian Church Has a New Pastor

Rev. H. S. Early and family arrived the first of the week from Richmond, Ky. He is the new pastor of the Christian church at this place and will preach next Sunday. For the present they are at the home of Mr. H. W. Atkinson where they will be located until their household goods arrive.

Rev. Early was here the last Sunday in October and held services. Pastor D. H. Matherly, the Catlettsburg pastor, who had been coming to Louisa since the Sundays, during the time between the two churches, preached his last sermon here on the second Sunday in this month.

The new pastor will give his entire attention to the church at this place, preaching every Sunday and conducting the mid week services.

Letcher Jailer Pleads Guilty in Federal Court

When the case of William Reynolds, jailer of Letcher county, charged with permitting prisoners to run at large and escape, was called for trial in Federal court at Richmond Tuesday, the jailer, through his attorney, Monroe Fields, Whitesburg, entered a plea of guilty. His attorney contended ignorance on the part of his client of the laws requirements and said that several prisoners had been allowed out of confinement as trustees who had disappeared.

Judge Cochran took the plea under advisement before imposing sentence.

ELBERT CALDWELL PLACED IN PIKE COUNTY JAIL

Sheriff J. W. Young took Elbert Caldwell, of Pikeville and placed him in jail there, the jail at this place not being considered safe. Caldwell is the man who was arrested for killing Myer Williams.

Grand Opera Hearing for Girl of 16

Marion Talley, 16 years old, daughter of a telegrapher in Kansas City, won a Grand Opera hearing and has been declared the vocal wonder of the day.

Cain & Thurman Buy Interest of Partner

J. M. Cain and Paul Thurman of the firm of Nash, Cain & Thurman have just bought the interest of A. A. Nash in this firm and the firm will now be Cain & Thurman with offices in Huntington, W. Va., as headquarters. They have received three contracts in Boone county, West Virginia. A side track for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad contract from the county of Boone and a road contract from the city of West Virginia.

FORD PURCHASES $1,250,000 MINE IN WEST VIRGINIA

Buy Desirable Coal Prop- erty at Davy, McDowell County, on N. & W.

New York Nov. 29. In accordance with his program of acquiring for himself all raw material needed in the manufacture of automobiles, Ford Motor Co. today has bought a coal mine for $1,250,000, according to reports carried today by a news taken from London.

Mr. Ford's mine, known as the Davy, McDowell property, is situated on the non-union fields at Davy, McDowell county, W. Va., on the line of the Norfolk & Western railroad. It is said to be a valuable field for the manufacture of cars which is used in the manufacture of Ford cars.

The automobile manufacturer paid $1,000,000 in cash to Davy and McDowell, and will receive the coal property in a few weeks. Ford and McDowell will then distribute the profits for the mine over and above Mr. Ford's share.

FREE DELIVERY FOR LOUISA MAIL

The houses in Louisa have been numbered, preparatory to establishing free mail delivery. This is now a part of the second class and the sales have reached the point where free delivery can be had.

The first step is the proper numbering of houses. When this is reported to the department and proper application made, authority will be granted to appoint carriers and put in the system.

This is another indication of Louisa's steady growth. Let everybody be awakened to the fact that Louisa is growing by proper vision and effort on the part of her citizens.

U. D. C. to Finish Shift to Davis at Birthplace, Near Fairview, Ky.

Hirmingham, Ala., Nov. 18. Resolutions pledging the United Daughters of the Confederacy to raise sufficient funds to complete the monument to Jefferson Davis, President of the Southern Confederacy, at his birthplace near Fairview, Ky., were passed by the convention here today, following the report of the committee.

Plans call for the completion of the monument by June 3, 1923, the birthday of President Davis, on which day the monument will be dedicated. General Hadden's appeal was based on the statement that the Kentucky Jockey Club had appropriated $500,000 for the monument.

Delegates to the convention pledged more than $5,000 for the fund. The convention itself pledged $1,000 and it was announced that the Kentucky Jockey Club had appropriated $500,000 for the monument.

NEW OIL STRIKE MADE IN MARTIN COUNTY LAST WEEK

Well Came in With Symptoms of a Gusher, Causing Excitement.

Considerable excitement has been caused by an oil strike made in Martin county last Friday. The well flowed a few times and looked to be good for big production. First reports placed the capacity very high.

The latest information is that the oil is in the line and was found at a depth of about 125 feet. It is dark oil, typical of the line quality. A 250 barrel tank has been taken to the location.

The location of the well is on a lease of the Middle fork of the Kentucky river, about two miles from the post office. The company holding the lease is composed of Huntington men, Don Miller and Tom Dunlap being the owners. They are reported to have leases on 10,000 acres, including the Rogers & Simpson homestead.

It is not much to be hoped that the well will prove to be the opening of a new pool. It is probable that there will be a good drilling there to explore the sands that produce more persistently than the line.

Martin County Woman Appeals Murder Case

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29. An appeal from the circuit court given Mrs. Mary Hensley in the Martin county case on a charge of conspiring with Frank Hensley to kill her husband, James Hensley, was filed in the Court of Appeals. Chapman was tried on a charge of killing Hensley and sentenced to the imprisonment.

Chapman lived with Hensley and was a sister-in-law of the victim. She was charged with conspiring with Hensley to kill him. Chapman was tried on a charge of killing Hensley and sentenced to the imprisonment.

The appeal was brought on the ground that the jury was composed of non-residents and that the trial was held in a room not fit for a trial.

N. & W. CONDUCTOR KILLED AT CRUM

Frank Hamilton, ex N. & W. conductor on the Lexington & Ashland road, was killed Saturday morning about 4:30 by a freight train at Crum, W. Va., when he was crushed between cars he was coupling.

There were no eye witnesses to the accident, but it is reported that Hamilton was coupling cars when he was struck by a freight train.

Hamilton was a well-known man in the community. He was a native of Kentucky and had been a conductor for many years.

Conductor Sperry, who was on duty at the time of the accident, was not injured.

The death of Mr. Hamilton was a great shock to his friends and officials of the railroad, as he had always been an unusually careful employee.

Mr. Hamilton left Portsmouth, Ohio, on Thursday evening and had been on the train ever since.

He has been an employee of the N. & W. railway company for over twenty years and has been a resident of Portsmouth for seventeen years. He was born at Rural Retreat, Va., and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Phillips. He has been a member of the Order of Redway Conductors since 1907. He was married twelve years ago at Whitesburg, Va., to Miss Lela O'Connell, daughter of Frank O'Connell, a prominent citizen of Whitesburg.

His wife is now living with a sister of Mr. Phillips at Rural Retreat, where her mother has died three years ago.

The body was taken to Portsmouth and from there to Rural Retreat for burial.

The Portsmouth Times says: "A few days ago W. V. Fischback and Donald Phillips, well known N. & W. freight conductors were enjoying one of their many friendly chats together and today their bodies rest among banks of flowers at adjoining homes on Mount street. Mr. Fischback was found dead in his room Friday morning, a victim of heart trouble."

The men were long time friends. Both were employed on the Williamsburg division.

It is just another of those queer twists of fate that has called them to the Great Beyond within a few hours of each other and it is a coincidence that their bodies should be at adjoining homes.

Lewis County Soldier Slain With Sheep Shears

Vanceburg, Ky., Nov. 29. William (Dewey) Thickworth, 28 years old, veteran of the Rainbow Division, A. E. F., who was wounded five times in France and decorated for bravery, was killed; killed by sheep shears, while working on a farm near Vanceburg. Thickworth was a free-for-all fighter, and to have been over whelmed.

Thickworth died five minutes after he was stabbed in the heart with a pair of shears. Thickworth is alleged to have killed the fatal wound, Will Wright is alleged to have nearly bitten off the nose of Robert Jones.

According to evidence given to the coroner's jury, the older Jones and Sherwood Adams came to the house of Thickworth, wanting to get whiskey. Thickworth said he had none. This started the quarrel.

Subsequent search revealed some whiskey in a pop bottle which is said to have been Thickworth's. All parties involved including Jack Burton and wife were helped in jail until the examining trial.

Dietric and Company at The Garden Nov. 29

The next Lay-out number in Louisa will be on Wednesday night of next week, November 29, when Dietric & Company, magicians and conjurers will be the entertainers. Special attention is called to the exceptional variety of the program. There is an entire absence of sameness.

Making a study of modern magic, Dietric and Company have achieved an enviable reputation in their chosen field of producing good clean wholesome amusement.

An evening's entertainment, worth while of Magic, Mime, Melody and Music at the Garden. The show in Louisa is at Wednesday night.

BIG DEVELOPMENT OF ARMO PLANT AT ASHLAND SURE

Plans for Financing Worked Out And Will be Announced Soon.

The American Rolling Mill Company, purchaser of the big plants at Ashland, will start a large machine mill, every employment to more than 1,000 men. This plan was announced some time ago but the financing had not been arranged until this week. The following news is taken from the story.

Middletown, Ohio, November 29. Following a seven-hour session of the board of directors of the American Rolling Mill Company, held here this afternoon and evening, President George M. Varsity made the announcement that plans for the financing of the Ashland plant of the corporation acquired last year had been agreed upon.

The plan is to build a new plant in the industrial district of Cincinnati that will be to have been done and the state and it of President Varsity was no surprise.

The following was the statement of President Varsity issued tonight: "A plan of financing the development of the new Ashland plant of the American Rolling Mill Company was agreed upon at the meeting of the Board of Directors held at Middletown today. The financial plan for the extension will be announced shortly, just as soon as a statement can be prepared for the stockholders. The company's plants have been running at full capacity all summer, and a very satisfactory showing has been made."

The four members, Chairman E. C. O'Brien of Frankfort, Sherman Goodrich, treasurer of the Kentucky Iron and Steel Company, former Senator Thomas A. Connelley of Lexington, and County Judge E. W. Seiff of Mt. Sterling, have stood by the plan. Some of the members left here Saturday impressed with the facility of further efforts to get together. The situation is prominent with possibilities, including resignations and the continuation of the deadlock until the 1923 General Assembly convenes.

The deadlock in itself will not affect the business of the school at Murray, Ky. The problem of organization and building is solved. The law provides that "if gifts and donations are made, sufficient to establish one of said schools, then the sum of $50,000 shall be available for the maintenance and operation of said school."

Promoters of the Murray school are working to commit the State to that project, regardless of what is done about the other school. Chairman Aubrey T. Wells of the State Tax Commission, is taking the lead in this and appeared before the commission Saturday with a delegation from his town, who, after closing negotiations about the heirs and site, received the assurance of the commission that the organization of the school would be taken up at the next meeting.

That will bring about a showdown between the commission and the State Board of Education. The law, which originally provided for the State Board of Education to attend to the matter of selecting sites, was amended to provide for the commission, a majority of whom were to be selected by the Speaker of the House, and it retained the word "establish" in the commission's duties, while it said "the management and control, when established, shall be vested in the State Board of Education."

The commission is understood to be willing to name Dr. J. W. Carr, High School supervisor under the General Education Board, as president of the institution. Dr. Carr declined today to say whether he would accept.

The presidency has never been offered, he replied when asked, "I don't mind saying that I never have been an applicant. I am not an applicant now."

State Board Refuses to Meet.
Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29.—The State Board of Education will not confer

Mrs. Nannie A. Ford, widow of the late Robert Ford, died at her home in Portsmouth, Ohio, Monday night, death being due to complications. Mrs. Ford has been ill for ten months.

She was born in Louisa, Ky., Aug. 25, 1855, and was married to Robert Ford Jan. 5, 1881. Mr. Ford preceded her in death two years ago.

To this union were born five children, four of whom survive: T. A. of Catlettsburg, Ky.; Orma of Philadelphia; Mildred and Amanda, at home.

The funeral was held at Catlettsburg, Interment in the Ashland cemetery.

State Normal Commission Deadlocks Again on the Selection of Site for School

NORMAL BREACH SEEN IMPENDING

Deadlock Cannot be Broken
Is Belief; Resignations
Are Hinted.

The Courier-Journal, Frankfort

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29. To all appearances, a deadlock on the location of the Eastern Normal School and approaching show-down in regard to opening the Murray school, the State Normal Commission will meet with the State Board of Education to confer with it about the Murray school, the site for which the commission selected here last Saturday.

Whether the State Board will accept the commission could not be learned. State Superintendent George Colvin has not announced his associates in the normal school commission. The letter to Commissioner Barrett follows:

Desires To Co-operate.
"I have advised the State Board of Education that you have been authorized by the Normal School Commission to invite the members of the State Board of Education to meet with the members of the Normal School Commission in Lexington, Saturday, November 25, for the purpose of selecting a president for the new normal school to be located at Murray and to consider the advisability of opening the school in January, 1923."

"In this connection, I wish to repeat what I stated to your commission at its session in Frankfort last Saturday, that the State Board of Education stands ready at all times to co-operate with your commission in all ways to the end that a Normal School adequate to meet the needs of the people of Western Kentucky shall be established as contemplated in the law, providing for the establishment of a Normal School in Western Kentucky at the earliest possible date."

As the State Board of Education views the matter, and as we are advised, the law providing for the establishment of two new Normal Schools places certain distinct duties upon your commission to select the two sites for the new schools, and to receive gifts of land, buildings or money for the establishment of these two Normal Schools and in erect such buildings as in the judgment of your commission are necessary for the proper conduct of these schools. This duty and obligation upon your commission has always been recognized to the fullest extent by the State Board of Education. The law places the management and control of these Normal Schools, when established in the manner above indicated, in the hands of the State Board of Education.

Meeting Would Be Futile.
"We are advised that the management and control of the two Normal Schools by the State Board of Education necessarily implies the duty and the right of the State Board of Education to select the faculty and prescribe the course of study for the schools. This is a duty and a right that was not sought by the State Board of Education, but the law having placed it upon us, we have no disposition to shirk it."

In view of the conclusion, it appears to us that no good purpose can be served by a joint meeting of your commission and the State Board of Education for the purpose of selecting the president of the Western Kentucky Normal School. I am, therefore, directed by the State Board of Education to advise your commission that whenever your commission officially notifies the State Board of Education that Murray has been chosen as the site for the Normal School and that a suitable building, in which to conduct the school, has been secured, the State Board of Education will at once proceed in the election of a president and faculty and adopt a course of study."

Johnson County Sheriff
Shoots a Moonshiner

Sheriff Grant Daniels, of Johnson county, is reported to have shot a man named Meek, of Henrietta, at the railroad station near there yesterday. The sheriff and deputies were there to capture a bunch of alleged moonshiners and when they got off of the train the trouble began. Meek resisted, it is said, and drew a gun. The sheriff lost no time in landing him with a shot. It is thought he will recover.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 18.—Eighteen ballots taken by the State Normal School Commission this afternoon resulted in a deadlock between Morehead and Paintsville, and the commission adjourned to meet again next Saturday morning at Lexington, when, in addition to voting on the site for the Eastern school, a conference will be held with the State Board of Education in regard to opening the Western School at Murray.

The commission today accepted Murray's bonus of $100,000 and selected the site on the thirty-acre tract just outside the town, owned by Rainey T. Wells, chairman of the State Tax Commission, and Dr. E. B. Holston. The selection was unanimous.

Chairman Wells and a delegation from Murray appeared before the commission. They were assured that the commission is in favor of opening the school January 1 if possible. The question whether the commission of the State Board of Education is empowered to elect the president and faculty was discussed, and it was decided to confer with the board, which is composed of State Superintendent George Colvin, Secretary of State Fred A. Vaughan and Attorney General Charles I. Dawson.

Dr. J. W. Carr, at present supervisor of high schools in the Department of Education, an office maintained by the General Education Board, a Rockefeller Foundation, is talked of for president of the school. He is a Columbia graduate and formerly was superintendent of schools at Dayton, O.

After disposing of the business in connection with the Murray site, the commission heard a delegation from Paintsville, who offers twenty acres and $100,000 and has proceeded to ballot on the Eastern school site.

The votes were scattered on a few ballots and then settled down to Paintsville and Morehead.

On the concluding ballot it stood just as it did at the last meeting: Chairman B. C. O'Brien, Thomas A. Connelley, Sherman Goodrich and D. W. Seiff for Morehead, and J. L. Harman, Judge Arthur Peter, Alex G. Barrett and W. S. Wallen for Paintsville.

Mr. Wallen resigned as secretary because his home is at Presonsburg, he thought, too far away from the chairman, and Judge Seiff was elected secretary and treasurer.—Courier-Journal.

MAN KILLED IN OIL FIELD

Edward Russell of Tennessee who has been working in the oil field in this section for the past year was killed last Friday night at a well being drilled for J. K. Vetter. He was assisting in the drilling and when the hammer was pulled out it fell on him, killing him instantly.

His remains were brought to Paintsville and prepared for shipment to his home in Tennessee. Mr. Spine, who has charge of the work for Mr. Vetter, sent a man with the remains to his old home.—Paintsville Herald.

Funeral of O. W. Endicott
Held From Residence

The body of Oscar W. Endicott arrived in Louisa last Sunday evening from Albuquerque, New Mexico, and was taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Emma Endicott. Funeral services were conducted at the residence on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. J. D. Brame, pastor of the Baptist church of this place, the Rev. Myrtle of Greensburg also taking part in the service. Flowers from the different churches of the town furnished the music. A large number of relatives and friends was present. The floral tribute was beautiful, several pieces being sent from Presonsburg.

Interment took place in Fulkerson cemetery beside his father, Jerry Endicott.

$10,000 Verdict Given
For Injuries in Crash

The jury in the case of Max Callihan vs. George Hunt, in the circuit court at Catlettsburg, brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $10,032.54. The case is an old one and is the outcome of injuries sustained by Callihan five years ago in a collision on Lexington avenue, Ashland, with an automobile driven by Hunt. Callihan at the time was riding a motorcycle.

Callihan claimed the loss of his right eye and other injuries.

The case had been tried once before several years ago and resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

LOT SALE AT GRAYSON.
Elsewhere appears an advertisement of an auction sale of lots at Grayson, to be conducted on December 2, by the Bowman Realty Co., the well known real estate operators of Huntington, whose success in this line of operation is merited. The property offered adjoins the grounds and buildings now going in of the Normal Title at Grayson which under the able direction of Prof. Luby is rapidly taking shape as a permanent situation in new and modern quarters. Rescues Other Members; Dies of Burns Received

Lewisburg, W. Va., Nov. 20.—Harry Bowes, hero of the fire which Sunday destroyed the home of his family at Keister, six miles from here, was injured today at the conclusion of the second funeral in the family within as many days.

He died yesterday, just as the hour of his brother, Herbert's funeral, from burns received while trying to rescue other members of the family.

The fire was caused when the father, Herbert Bowes, Sr., poured oil in the stove he had just kindled, causing it to explode.

Harry Bowes saved five of his younger brothers by dropping them one by one from an upper story window after their escape from the burning home.

Afterwards not knowing whether his parents and the brother Herbert had gotten out, he braved the flames below and received the burns which caused his death.

Nancy Langhorne Aslor was one of only two women returned to the Parliament in England at the election last week. She had to fight for re-election, but having been born and reared in Virginia she was equal to the task.

Congress assembled in called session last Monday and heard a message from the President urging passage of the ship subsidy measure. This is a proposition to pay out of the public treasury a subsidy to ship owners sufficient to make the business profitable in competition with foreign ships.

We are publishing this week in full the Courier-Journal report of all that has transpired in connection with the meeting of the State-Normal School Sift Commission at Frankfort last Saturday. Another meeting will be held at Lexington Saturday of this week. We have no further comment to make at this time. The case is before them. Louisa is the logical solution of the matter, and it seems to us that the Commission should be able to see this fact.

Georgia has the distinction of having sent the first woman to the United States Senate. Also, she served the shortest term ever filled by any Senator—only one day. Her appointment was to fill a vacancy and her successor was elected before the Senate convened again, but the gentleman who succeeded her did not qualify until Mrs. Felton had been permitted to serve a short time. She was accorded much attention and respect. Mrs. Felton is 87 years old and is known as "the grand old woman of Georgia."

The Big Sandy News has been enlarged to a seven-column quarto and its owners have installed a modern Webb perfecting press. We are glad to know that it is in such a prosperous condition, as it is one of our most interesting exchanges.—Cereido Advance.

The Cereido Advance and the Big Sandy News came nearer being twins than any other pair of newspapers in this part of the country. Both were born the same year, 27 years ago. Mr. T. T. McDougal, established the Advance and is still on the job. The senior editor of the NEWS has been at the helm only a few weeks longer than Mr. McDougal. Having traveled side by side in the flying eagles, for all intents and purposes there is a bond of fellowship or sympathy or something between us.

Senator Newberry, who spent $750,000 to win over Henry Ford a seat in the United States Senate, has resigned since the election. The people of Michigan sent him to the Senate. Townsend, electing a Democrat for the first time in 70 years. Newberry was the issue in that race as well as in others throughout the country. When Newberry was indicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for violation of the law limiting expenditures in elections, the question of expelling him from the Senate was fought out in that body. He retained his seat by a plurality of only five votes. The last election made more than enough for the Senate to expel Newberry and the case was to be reopened. So Mr. Newberry made haste to settle the matter himself by resigning. When rich men become thoroughly convinced that the more they pay for an office, the less it is worth they may decide to keep their money out.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

ONCE upon a time there was a man named Russell Sage. He died many times a millionaire. He never spent a penny he was not compelled to spend. He bought his time and his winter clothing in July. He paid fifty cents for straw hats, when merchants were throwing away their left overs in September. Thus he amassed a huge fortune, which two of his nephews are now spending. They win in season with the money Sage left and enjoy the buying with the human touch Sage could not leave. He never knew it. Buying in seasons spells universal prosperity and human happiness. But buy early. The rush stimulates prices! Everything needed for Christmas is now in stock, and the early bird catches the worm. The worm may be foolish to get up, but he's up in every store. So shop now.

Mr. J. W. M. Stewart Interviewed in New York on Subject of Women in Politics

The following interesting interview with Hon. J. W. M. Stewart of Ashland appeared in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Monday:
New York, November 19.—J. W. M. Stewart, Ashland, attorney, and a keen man of affairs in Kentucky, who was in New York last week on important business and to attend a meeting of the Consolidation Coal Company, of which he is the legal head and a director, had this to say in regard to the entrance of women into political life, not only in the United States, but in European countries:
"Women have had a wholesome effect upon Government everywhere. Politics, as everything else, needs new viewpoints constantly. The situation is much the same as with business, which, as the saying goes, is improved with the infusion of new blood."
"If the same conditions are permitted to go on without any occasional change, there is the possibility of lapsing into a rut from which it is a difficult thing to escape. Progress is almost synonymous with change when that change is in the line of positive improvement and the introduction of factors that are worth while."

"The changing viewpoint is supplied, I believe, in the introduction of women into politics. For years they may not exert any great effect upon political institutions, as such. I do not believe they should aim at radical modification of anything that is contributing to public good. But during all that time, when they are getting their bearings, so to speak, and learning the political game, they have it in their power to exert an influence for good upon the male voters."

"There is no doubt that the feminine viewpoint is going to be different from that of men in regard to politics. As a different viewpoint alone it would be of little good, but blended with that of the men who have had years of political experience, and who perhaps need a freshening of their ideas, there is the possibility of a real improvement of existing political institutions."
"In England, from reports of their elections, the women are taking an active part. They apparently are wielding a power for good, too. Other nations which have not adopted universal suffrage, if they study the experience of English speaking peoples, will put it into practice if they look to progress."

Cost of Living is Again on Increase

Washington, Nov. 20.—An indicated increase of 2 per cent in the retail cost of food to the average family in the United States during the month ending October 15 was reported today by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the Department of Agriculture, based on the prices of forty-three articles in fifty-one cities. By cities, San Francisco led with an increase of 6 per cent, while Boston, Los Angeles and Philadelphia showed 4 per cent, and Buffalo, Cleveland and New York were included in those reporting 3 per cent. No city reported a decrease, but the increase in a number, including Chicago, Indianapolis and Milwaukee, was less than one-half of 1 per cent.
Of the food articles fourteen showed an increase which was indicated to be largely seasonal, as much as 21 per cent for fresh eggs and 10 per cent for butter, while nineteen showed a decrease and the prices of ten remained unchanged.

He—"Why, er—er—yes, dear. Too long. I haven't a cent left."

The Letter Box

REV. BELL'S CONGRATULATIONS.

Summersville, W. Va., Nov. 20, 1922, Big Sandy News, Louisa, Ky.
Congratulations and congratulations on your progressiveness in the installation of a Webb perfecting press. You deserve and merit the unstinted support and co-operation of all the people, and especially the merchants, in your forward move to give the best paper and advertising medium in the Big Sandy. Go to it, I'm with you. Now put at your Mast Head "Watch Louisa Grow." With a Big Sandy Normal in sight, a government building, a high school building, free mail delivery, an electric light plant and a printing plant like you are preparing for; you just can't keep her down. I glory in your progress and forward movement. Next thing you will be getting out a ditty. Alright, then I'll come over and get a job delivering papers. HULLA.

BETTER RESULTS EXPECTED.

We hope to present to our readers this week a better printed paper than they received last week. Ink rollers shipped November 2 failed to arrive in time for last week and we were forced to print with old rollers and with two less than the full number required. The new ones have arrived, and with a little time for adjustments of the new press we hope to be turning out a high class product.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells About the Economic Grab Game

COMPARE the finest Oregon apple with a wild crab and you have a simple parallel of the unfolding refinements of political and economic institutions.

We found the apple wild and we tamed it. We took the seed of the best fruit and planted again. By replanting only the best, protecting the trees from the insect foes, giving battle to the wrecking worm, we have through a generation of trees produced marvelous fruit.

This is not an illogical picture to present in the consideration of railroads. A lot of people think that we are going to the dogs. Ex-Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota, one of our brightest but most pessimistic public men, has recently written a book to tell us how topsy-turvy everything is and that we are headed for the how-wows.

We are not going to the how-wows. The good Senator is wrong. He points to the danger of combinations in business. The very danger that he fears is bringing into life the perfected fruit of government control with ultimate government ownership of the common carriers of the country. When we reach that good goal we are going to create out of those common carriers a revenue which will greatly reduce our tax burden.

It is a pruning process, a program of selection and development, of that which brings promise of the better until we get the best.

We used to be afraid of railroad mergers. We used to pass laws to prevent them. We thought it a terrible system for small railroads to get together and organize one large system. Now we think it fine. We're encouraging it. The trouble is, a lot of fellows who were progressives in 1889 haven't yet got the progressive view of 1922.

Four big railroads, the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul are today talking merger. This is not a terrible contemplation. We should hope for its consummation. It is just making one fine, big apple out of four smaller ones. It's improving the fruit on our national economic and industrial tree.

If you want to see a line of old railroad crabs just look at any passing freight train. It's a kaleidoscopic picture of a monumental mix-up, a moving panorama of the inefficiency and waste of a lot of little crab roads.

On that passing freight train you will see cars marked New York Central, Southern Pacific, Houston and Maine, Denver & Rio Grande, Southern, Great Northern, Lackawanna, Illinois Central, Wabash, Florida, East Coast, Soo Line, Texas and Pacific and so on to the calaboose.

Every one of those cars has to be distributed back to the four corners of the continent until they get on their own little siding. Little sour crabs, belonging to an ancient transportation tree.

The United States mail pouch is a mail pouch anywhere from Maine to Arizona. Any railroad car should be the same.

The more they merge the better and when we get one big merger of all railroads, the next step will be for the government to take them over, run them, acquire the profit and spend it in running the business of the government, thereby reducing the tax burden upon the taxpayer.

Railroads, like apples, get better as they get bigger. It's a great and grand grafting game just like pinning up the trees for the finer product. We are going ahead, each day nearer to a more perfect product.

Prayering at 10:30 by the pastor. Rev. C. A. Slaughter, P. E. will preach at 6:30 and will hold first quarterly conference following the evening service. All members of the conference urged to be present.

Prayer meeting Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

If possible, reach the church a few minutes before the service begins. Join with the congregation in all hymns and responsive readings. "Enter into His Gates with Thanksgiving, and into His Courts with praise."

Union Thanksgiving service will be held at the First M. E. Church South November 30 at 6:30 p. m. The sermon will be preached by the pastor of the First Baptist church. Everybody welcome.

The hour for all the evening services at this church has been changed from 7 o'clock to 6:30.

Rev. C. A. Slaughter, presiding elder of the Ashland district, will be in Louisa next Sunday and preach at the evening service.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

"The Church of Friendship."

The latch string is always on the outside. A hearty welcome awaits you at this and other churches of this city. Come to the house of the Lord next Sunday. Every phase of our church work is going along nicely. We were present last Sunday in our Sunday school. Why not make it 200 this next Sunday? 200 is our goal by the first of the year. "Every one bring one."

Did you know that your prayer meeting is the spiritual thermometer of your church? It is. Forty-two present last Wednesday night. Make it 75.

The pastor is preaching a series of sermons on the titles ascribed in our Lord at the morning hour. Next Sunday morning, "Jesus the Father's Son." Sunday night, "Why I believe in everlasting punishment."

Don't forget the Thanksgiving service at the M. E. Church South Thursday, November 30, 7 p. m. Come, and let us offer a prayer of Thanksgiving for all of the services rendered us.

The ladies of the church are asked to meet the pastor of the church next Wednesday afternoon at the church at 2 p. m.

The pastor wishes to thank all who remembered his household in such a beautiful way on last Thursday evening.

J. D. HAMME, Pastor.

Plans are under way to perfect a boy scout organization here soon. Parents, send your boy next Monday night 8:30. All parents are invited to attend.

Preaches Golden Jubilee Sermon in Cleveland, O.

Bishop Lewis W. Horton of the Lexington diocese was in Cleveland, O., to preach Sunday the golden jubilee sermon in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of All Saints Episcopal church, which was founded by his father, Rev. Lewis Horton, D. D.

The Rev. Mr. Horton, who was for 47 years a clergyman in Cleveland, succeeded his brother, Rev. William N. Horton, as rector of St. John's parish there in 1847 and during his service there founded two missions. He had charge of the two missions churches of St. John's until they were out of debt and had been consecrated and one of them, All Saints church, was the first charge of his son, now Bishop Horton, after his graduation from Ministerial school. His mission work was associated with his father in Cleveland for seven years before going to his first independent parish, St. John's, of Richmond, Va.

It is also a coincidence that Bishop Horton succeeded as rector at St. Andrew's church, Louisville, his maternal uncle, Rev. John S. Wallace. He was in charge of the Louisville church when made bishop.

REPORTERS

Gladys Hawes Moxie Johns
Florence Badger Julia Jane Burgess

The staff was changed some time ago, but failed to announce it. This staff will continue to edit this department until the end of the first semester.

High School Notes.

The Freshmen class was organized some time ago and the following officers were elected: Pres. Jessie Carter; Vice President, Edith Adams; Secretary-Treasurer, Earl Kinner. They selected green and white as their class colors.

The student body and also the faculty were glad to have Mrs. Densell, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Plummer, Miss Williamson and Mr. Queen as their visitors at literary last Friday.

Alvas See was absent from school one day last week.

The regular monthly tests will be held Friday. The students are real anxious for the day to come.

Quite a large crowd was out to witness the basketball game last Friday which was very much appreciated by the contestants of both games.

Lon Carter spent the week-end with her parents at Fallsburg.

Today's Style.

When we were just little kids
And had our feelings hurt
We used to hide our wounded pride
Behind our mother's skirts.

But now the little boys and girls
Are up against it right.
The skirts today are such that they Don't hide the mothers, quite.

GLADYS HAWES.

The Attention Literary Society met Friday afternoon and a very interesting program was rendered. There were a few changes in the program on account of illness and absence. Miss Vivian Hayes covered us with a piano solo and Jim K. Miller with a song. Mr. Queen gave us a very interesting talk.

The following program will be rendered December 15:

Christmas Carol.
Humorous Lectures.
Cornet Solo.
Monologue.
Piano Duet.
Extemporaneous talk.
Song.

Debate:—Resolved: That the Christmas holidays of the present time are more enjoyable than those of fifty years ago.

Musical Selections.
Fine act comedy.
Familiar duet.

The Town Tattler.

This program will be especially interesting as it will be the last in this semester. This will be the last meeting over which the present officers will preside.

Two ties and seven over-time periods without success to win for either team the class tournament ended last Friday night before a crowded house of enthusiastic basketball fans.

The Sophomore girls tied the Freshmen girls 6 to 6 which they were tight to break with their girls over-time periods. Guarding and team work at its best on both teams. No unguarded shots were permitted during the evening. The players merged themselves so well into machines of five players each that outstanding players can be mentioned.

With the close of the first over-time period Kinsler went in for Carter and Carter for Davis. The Sophomores were also shifted about in hopes of breaking the tie. With an untidy determination to win, the girls fought through two more periods exhibiting the finest spirit ever shown on a basketball floor.

Freshmen: Davis, R. F.; Burgess, L. F.; Norton, C.; Carter, R. G.; Adams, L. G.

The Junior boys tied the Freshmen boys 4 to 4 which stood unbroken after four over-time periods.

The Freshmen opened the scoring by field goal by Crutcher soon after the opening whistle. Radcliffe followed with another field goal which ended their scoring. The Juniors tightened down, playing a fine defense but were unable to locate the basket. Two foul goals were made by the upper classmen bringing the half to a close 4 to 2 in the Juniors favor.

In the second half J. Carter found the basket for two field goals but only one of them counted. This tied the score, 4 to 4. Both teams lightened down to better team work but were unable to bring the ball within scoring distance during the remainder of the half.

At the opening of the first over-time period Cummings went in for Crutcher. The teams were called back four times, but were unable to break the tie.

Juniors:—Hummer, R. F.; G. Carter, L. F.; H. Carter, C.; A. See, R. G.; J. See, L. G.

Freshmen:—Crutcher, R. F.; Radcliffe, L. F.; Hays, C.; Marcum, R. G.; Vanhook, L. G.

Tuesday morning Coach Dorsett made known his selection for the first string of basketball boys. He issued complete uniforms to Burgess Carter, Garland Carter, Neil Hummer, Alvas See, Jack See, Loyd Wray, Chester Compton, Foster Queen, Paul Rowlett and John D. Marcum.

Tuesday evening at 6:00 o'clock equipment was given to Jessie Carter, Edith Adams, Edith Cheap, Elizabeth Wilson, Edith Norton, Ella Maule Kinsler, Anna Mary Miller, Gladys Hawes, Beulah Kirk, Opal Walters.

Several candidates on both the boys and girls squad are crowding the first string candidates for their equipment. It will take constant training for some of the first team to retain their station.

It is planned for the basketball teams to have their pictures taken the latter part of next week.

Some new seats will be placed in the hall for the next basketball game. Freshmen boys come home Friday to play the High School boys.

December 1 Catlettsburg High School girls play the Louisa High School girls here.

Delilah Combs' Suit Against Crain Dropped

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 20.—One of three damage suits for $100,000 each against M. S. Crain and fourteen other defendants, filed in Fayette Circuit Court several months ago by widows of three men killed in the Clayhole election battle in November, 1921, was dismissed without prejudice to future action by Circuit Judge R. C. Stoll today on motion of Attorney Hyland C. Musick of Jackson, counsel for the plaintiffs.

The case dismissed was that of Mrs. Delilah Combs against M. S. Crain, Ed Chester, Willie and Arnie Davis; Will, Marlon, Ambly and Alfred Barnett; Will Campbell, Ed Combs, Greer T. Strong, Clarence Engate, James Kilburn and Tom Miller, who were alleged in plaintiff's petition to have caused the death of her husband in the election fight.

The two remaining cases against the same defendants with Mrs. Lizzie Allen and Mrs. Pauline Combs as plaintiffs have been set for hearing here December 4.

Hyland C. Musick explained that he had asked for dismissal of the Delilah Combs case at Lexington because the same suit had been filed in the Clark county circuit court at Winchester.

Two New Buildings.

The corner of Front street and Grace avenue is being cleared for the erection of a business block.

F. M. Williams and Mrs. A. R. Williams will erect a three story brick structure on the corner. This building will have a 48 foot frontage on Main street and a depth of 75 feet along Grace avenue and will be finished with a basement underneath.

The first floor will be used by the New Drug Store and other parts of the building will be fitted for offices and other business features.

Adjoining this lot Mr. J. E. Pauley is clearing the building from his lot preparatory to the erection of a three story business house. This building will have a frontage of 45 feet on Main street and a depth of 110 feet.

Pikeville Rotary Club News.

The Rotary Club is sending Cloyd Sowards, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Sowards, and Alvin May Runyon, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Runyon, of Shebena, to the hospital in Louisville. Both children have club feet, and if proper attention is given the crippled children of this nature while they are young, it is an easy matter to correct the defect, and the gift and boy will grow up as if never crippled. The Rotary Club is taking considerable interest in the crippled children of this community.

Mrs. Jeff Sowards and Mrs. Orvel Runyon left Thursday morning with their two children for Louisville.

Examining Trial.

The examining trial of J. M. Hillier on charge of shooting and wounding Attorney O. A. Sump on Saturday, November 4, was held before J. R. Harris, Police Judge of the city of Pikeville, last Saturday, and he was placed under a $1,000 appearance bond and an additional $1,000 peace bond.

Judge Vanover conducted the examination of witnesses for the prosecution.

New Drug Store Moved.

The New Drug Store has moved this week to Dr. Hughes building adjoining the Pikeville National Bank in order to permit the raising of the building in which it was located preparatory to the erection of a modern three story building.
